RESOLUTION 2008-~~22~~

A RESOLUTION TO UPDATE CERTAIN PORTIONS OF SECTION I-2.7 OF THE TOWN OF SILVERTON DEVELOPMENT STANDARDS REGARDING SEASONAL SANITATION CHARGES FOR BUSINESSES.

WHEREAS, the Board of Trustees for the Town of Silverton, Colorado has the authority to set certain standards and policies regarding the provision of services; and

WHEREAS, the Board has determined that clarifications for how seasonal businesses are billed are necessary ; and

WHEREAS, the Board has reviewed these clarifications and determined that the changes proposed will provide the needed clarity to allow for proper billing.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE TOWN OF SILVERTON, COLORADO, that section I-2.7-E is hereby amended to read as follows:

E. Non-full year or seasonally occupied business properties: If a business property is unoccupied for three consecutive months, and water service has been turned-off for the same period of time or other evidence that the business is closed is presented, said property shall be considered to be out-of-service in terms of use of the solid waste disposal site. No property shall be deemed to be out of service for more than three consecutive months. If determined to be out of service for three consecutive months, the property shall be charged only the applicable base rate as set by resolution for each month within said quarter.

THIS RESOLUTION was approved and adopted the 24th day of November, 2008 by the Board of Trustees of the Town of Silverton, Colorado.

ATTEST:

Brian Carlson, Town Clerk

Terrence M. Kerwin, Mayor
Town of Silverton, Colorado
